

Hi, this is Mike Jauregui, School Tours of America Representative, Educator, Tour Director and Fundraising Specialist. I want to take a moment of your valuable time and introduce myself and personally express how much we would love to have your school in our School Tours of America Family. At School Tours of America, LLC, we've made it our business to deliver unique travel opportunities that support classroom learning. As the leading educational tour company, our team of professionals is made up of many former teachers. That's why we provide a unique perspective in providing thoughtfully-planned, well-guided educational tours that are affordable to a wide range of students and families. These non-school sponsored trips open students' eyes to the history, culture and capitalism that make the United States such a great place to live.

How I can help you develop this wonderful educational experience:
