

Washington, DC & NYC: The Best of Both Worlds

Give your students time to explore and experience two key cities important to governing our country and managing the economy—Washington, DC and New York City. Start in the Nation’s capital, where students will experience The Smithsonian, Capitol Hill and other important sites. Then it’s on to the Big Apple where they’ll tour Wall Street and other areas of Manhattan and even watch a Broadway show. It’s a double dose of lifetime memories.
